

effective participator

How would you rate yourself as a effective participator? Look at the statements below. Circle the ones that reflect your skills

If I need help or advice I ask

If I have an idea, I share it appropriately

I am respectful towards others at all times - even if I don't agree with them

I like trying to persuade and influence others, whilst respecting differences in opinions

I like working with others, and even when we don't see eye to eye, I am able to discuss issues sensibly

I do as I would like to be done by

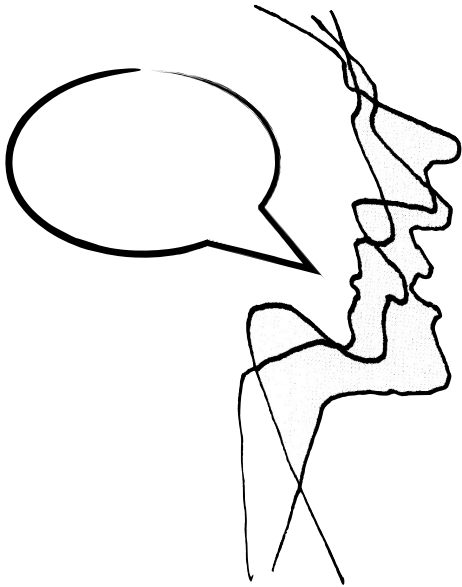

I take an interest in what happens around me

I enjoy getting involved in class and whole school events

I like helping people to resolve problems and find solutions

I see all members of our school community as equals

effective participator

skills log

List and describe what you have done to demonstrate you have these effective participation skills

I can listen respectfully to other peoples' ideas and opinions, even if I don't agree

I share my ideas and can ask for and listen to feedback and advice from others

I like getting involved in class and whole school events

I am curious and take an interest in learn from what is happening around me

I treat all members of my class as equals and value their contributions